A Happy Throng of Children Enjoy Themselves—The Affair a Grand Success.

A happy throng of young people enjoyed themselves on a trolley party over the Winchester avenue lines Saturday afternoon and evening. A Woodmont car, gaily decorated, started from Evergreen cemetery at 4:30 o'clock filled with happy children. The party first went to Woodmont, then back to Savin Rock, where they were photographed near the grove. Boarding the car again they speeded back to the city and went to Westville. From Westville they went to Fair Haven and back to the green. It was nearly 10 o'clock at night when they reached the end of their ride and were back to the starting point on Sylvan avenue. The party was gotten up by Misses Maud and Minnie Spargo, and they were ably assisted by their father, Mr. John Spargo, who went with the little ones and greatly added to the enjoyment of all. On the car were the following:

Mr. and Mrs. James Lee, Mr. and Mrs. John Spargo, Mrs. Ida Skinner, Mrs. Beattie Rowe, Misses Sophie Bowden, Sadie Pierpont, Lizzie Collins, Minnie Spargo, Flossie Lee, Lillie Everhardt, Maud Spargo, Lena Griffin, Jennie Bradley Street, Emma Durant, Carrie Durant, Kittie Mackenzie, Lillie Mackenzie, Jennie Skinner, Fanny Spargo, Lillie Bradley, Annie Meng, Clara Meng, Nettie Canty, Jessie Wharton, Fanny Rowe and Masters Walter Sutcliffe, Jessie Skinner, Clarence Skinner, Robert Sampson, Willie Spargo, Charlie Spargo, Lewis Wilcox, John Rowe, Charlie Flynn, Leon Wharton, Harry Beemer, John Stroud, Fred French and Charles Colton.

A Litter of Leonberg Pups.

Mr. Ernst Bollschweiler, the popular foreman at Weiher's brewery on Oak street, is the owner of a fine large Leonberg female dog with a long pedigree. The dog has a litter of five pups which are now seven weeks old and weigh seventeen pounds apiece. They resemble little bears and attract a great deal of attention. This class of dogs, which are very rare hereabouts, are very valuable as watch dogs and are much sought after.

HAVE ENGAGED MR. WYRE.

Will Look After Important Interests of J. Johnson & Son.

T. A. Wyre, who has been engaged in the clothing business in New Haven during the past twenty years, has just made a contract to look after important interests for J. Johnson & Son, the Church street clothiers. Mr. Wyre was for eighteen years confidential manager for J. B. Barnaby & Co. and is well known and respected all over Connecticut. He is one of the most popular business men in New Haven and his many friends will undoubtedly seek him out in his new place of business, for "once a friend always a friend" is the habit of all who know genial Thomas A. Wyre.

Mr. Wyre will have entire charge of Johnson & Son's advertising and will also give attention to other departments of the business. He will be pleased to see all his old friends and acquaintances and will give his personal attention to all.

Important Facts.

If you have dull and heavy pain across forehead and about the eyes; if the nostrils are frequently stopped up and followed by a disagreeable discharge; if soreness in the nose and bleeding from the nostrils is often experienced; if you are very sensitive to cold in the head accompanied with headache; then you may be sure you have catarrh; and should (immediately) resort to Ely's Cream Balm for a cure. The remedy will give instant relief.

BLACK SILKS

Beautiful Brocade Chinas, cheap—why? A bright stroke of buying on our part.

We're all smart sometimes, you know. Price for these Silks, 50c. a yard.

Put them against any thing in the market at 70 c. a yard. They're 34 inches wide, guaranteed all silk and very hard to get outside the Big Store.

WASH GOODS

News just touched the writer's attention, about a landed cargo, 5359 yards of Fine Printed Lawns in unusually pretty patterns at an unusually petty price—64 cents a yard.

Ask any impartial judge if they're not worth 12c. a yard.

Full one yard wide. White grounds striped and dotted and figured with black or white, or pink and blue colors.

Future dresses for children and dresses and waists for women. These goods show what true cheapness is.

SELLING SKIRTS

You know that this kind of a Crepon Skirt is creating a little craze just now.

Good cause for it. The skirt has lots of merit, but our skirts hang on a rack that we are compelled to use for other garments.

And so here you are: $10.00 skirts for $7.50. $2.50 skirts for $2.00. They go to first buyers.
